Extract from address of Mr. H. S. Firestone, President of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company, Akron, Ohio, at the Annual Sales Convention, September 28, 29 and 30, 1915.

'And regarding this question of the long price with trade discounts to take care of several 'gobetweens' which some of you have mentioned as unwholesome competition, particularly on large sizes in the cities, I have only this to say:

The motoring public is the court of last appeal. I put my trust in the final judgment of the car owner. Car owners are business men like you and me.

'It will not take them long to appreciate the
